

Terms and conditions “I International Digital Art Barcelona 2015 Award”

Artinpocket & Sant Agustí Monastery introducing the “I International Digital Art Barcelona 2015 Award”, open to all national and international artists. Each artist will be able to submit up to five works. The aim of this contest is to promote and encourage the artistic creation through the use of digital media.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. Grant features

This award will be given to the 3 best unpublished digital art projects according to the category

2. Works and categories

The works have to be only and exclusively carried out, and displayed in digital format (the works that have been created in an analogue format and then, converted to digital will not be taken into account). In this case will be valued the interrelation between different means of expression, especially between image, motion, sound and text."

It's a free style contest.

The participants will be able to join any of these art digital categories:

- Picture or digital image: understood as an artistic creation in digital format with a still.
- Video art: understood as an artistic creation in a digital format with a motion image.
- Multimedia installation: understood as an artistic creation in a digital format with a still or motion image that requires the interactive participation with the environment or the spectator.

3.Candidates

The artists will be able to participate alone or as a part of a group, without considering any kind of determinant (age limit, nationality...), and they must not hand over five works of digital creation. The candidates will only be able to win one of the awards.

Even if the contestant participates alone or with a group, they will only be able to hand over one request form that guarantees that their work is unknown, unpublished and that it has not been the winner of other contests. In case a collective work is handed over, the group will have to designate a representative. The award is open only to digital art, therefore refrain yourself from handing over works from other artistic scopes.

People will be able to see the participating works in the contest in one of the locals of the Simultaneous Digital Art Show of Barcelona. The organizers reserve the right to make a selection of these works.

4.Financial award (grant)

The amount of the I International Digital Art Barcelona 2015 Award is 4.000€ in prizes, that will be given to the three best projects divided in the following way:

- International Digital Art Barcelona 2015 Award to the best picture or digital image project, provided with a printer Equip Image PROGRAF Canon, valued in 1600€, to the best work.
- International Digital Art Barcelona 2015 Award to the best multimedia installation project, with a purse of 1200€ for the best work.
- International Digital Art Barcelona 2015 Award to the best video art project, with a purse of 1200€ for the best work.

There will be a unique payment of the prize in cash at the announcement of the winning projects.

5. Documentation

The project must be sent in a digital format to the link www.digitalbarcelona.com, web of the Simultaneous Digital Art Show of Barcelona, in a sole united document (in pdf, word, etc. format), with the following documents:

- a. Personal information: name, surname, mailing address, telephone, e-mail, etc.
- b. Curriculum vitae of the applicant.
- c. Descriptive report of the set of works (maximum 3.000 characters and 400 per work).
- d. Image or link of the works delivered in the contest.

Everything has to be sent in a compressed file.

6. Deadline

Candidates may process their paperwork until June 21st 2015.

Once it is presented it is not allowed the removal of any work.

7. The jury

The jury is made up of David Santaaulària (curator and cultural manager), Roc Parés (artist, manager of the University Master in Digital Arts in the Universitat Pompeu Fabra), an Artinpocket member and another member from Sant Agustí Monastery, all of them solvents and are a recognized technic and artistic reference. Its composition will not be announced until they have proclaimed the winners. Its choices will be unappealable and will be empowered to solve any unexpected problem or any problem that is related to the interpretation of the terms and conditions.

At jury's discretion the prizes can be declared null and void.

The jury will make the winners public the closing day of the show.

8. Property and promotion of the works

The authors must have all the rights of the used materials, and is their responsibility to obtain the necessary licenses and permits of the images, texts and sound.

The awarded works will still be property of the author and the author will be able to exhibit or recreate it freely, as long as the author leaves proof of I International Digital Art Barcelona 2015 Award. Also Artinpocket and Sant Agustí Monastery reserve the right to promote the awarded works.

9. Acceptance of the terms and conditions

The participation in this contest entails the acceptance of these terms and conditions and the resolution of the jury, as well as the changes that, as a consequence of the factors external to the organization, may be caused subsequently.

info:

www.digitalartbarcelona.com

info@digitalartbarcelona.com